ABOUT

Bridget is a London-based solo performer who brings pubs to life with voice, acoustic guitar, and a stompbox keeping the beat. No band needed – just one musician, a full sound, and a room full of people singing along.

Her set pulls from across the decades and the charts – Oasis and The Killers for the rock anthems, Fleetwood Mac for the sing-alongs, Taylor Swift and Sabrina Carpenter for the pop crowd, and Shamrock for something with a bit more grit. The result is a set that works the whole room, not just one corner of it.

Bridget has performed at venues including Earlsfield and The Charlotte, and brings the same energy whether it's a quiet Wednesday warm-up or a packed Friday night.
